JANUARY 2022 / FACTSHEET

OBJECTIVE

The Barings Emerging Markets Debt Short Duration Fund (The "Fund") is an actively managed Emerging Markets ("EM") Short Duration strategy. The Fund seeks to provide maximum total return consisting of both income generation and capital appreciation.

STRATEGY

Invests primarily in a diversified portfolio of short duration investment grade and high yield bonds from EM-based issuers.

MARKET OPPORTUNITY

- The EM corporate bond debt stock is over $2.7tn³, with 37% of maturities between 1-3 years and 40% within 5 years³; these characteristics may provide for stable income generation with lower volatility and a natural hedge to rising interest rates
- While not immune to volatility, fundamentals have remained stable, and the large number of issuers, sectors, and countries can provide attractive relative value opportunities that suit the research-intensive, bottom-up strategy at Barings
- During recent years, EM corporates have shown healthy returns with low correlations to equities and developed market debt

Key Risks:

- Emerging market countries may have less developed regulation and face more political, economic or structural challenges than developed countries. This means your money is at greater risk
- Debt securities are subject to risks that the issuer will not meet its payment obligations (ie, default). Low rated (high yield) or equivalent unrated debt securities of the type in which the fund will invest generally offer a higher return than higher rated debt securities, but also are subject to greater risks that the issuer will default.
- Derivative instruments can make a profit or a loss and there is no guarantee that a financial derivative contract will achieve its intended outcome. The use of derivatives can increase the amount by which the Fund's value rises and falls and could expose the Fund to losses that are significantly greater than the cost of the derivative as a relatively small movement may have a larger impact on derivatives than the underlying assets
- Changes in exchange rates between the currency of the Fund and the currencies in which the assets of the Fund are valued can have the effect of increasing or decreasing the value of the Fund and any income generated

The Morningstar Rating™ for funds, or "star rating", is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product's monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The Morningstar Rating does not include any adjustment for sales loads. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period actually has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods.

Barings Emerging Markets Debt Short Duration Fund tranche A USD Acc share was rated 4 stars against the following numbers of EAA Fund Global Emerging Markets Bond investments over the following time periods: 1203 investments in the last three years, 871 investments in the last five years, and 367 investments in the last ten years. Past performance is no guarantee of future results.

Morningstar Rating is for the A share tranche only; other tranches may have different performance characteristics.
